

This Week at SASLI

JUNE 17TH — 21ST

UPCOMING EVENTS TO KEEP IN MIND:

• June 25th:

Lecture:

The Future of Area Studies

By Don Davis

• June 27th:

Ice Cream
Social for all instructors and Bengali,
Sinhala, Tamil,
and Tibetan,
and Intermediate Hindi Students

SASLI Orientation

On Monday, June 17th from 8:00am—2:00pm SASLI will be holding a student learning event where students will purchase or pick up any necessary materials and gain valuable information about learning a language in an intensive summer session. There will be small and large group sessions followed by a social where students will have the opportunity to interact with staff, instructors, and other SASLI students.

8:00am-8:45am

All students check in at the SASLI office (203 Ingraham Hall). Students will be able to purchase and pick up textbooks.

8:45am-10:00am

Language Learning Presentation by Wendy Johnson, Assistant Director of the UW-Madison Language Institute (Ingraham B10)

10:00am-12:00pm

Small group in language classrooms with instructors: introductions and discussion

12:00pm-1:00pm

Reconvene in Ingraham B10 for large group discussion

1:00pm

All-SASLI Social (1820 Van Hise)
Samosas, chai, and ice-cream will be served.

For a full list of SASLI events visit: <http://www.sasli.wisc.edu/events.html>