Ice Cream Social

On Wednesday, June 25th, Professor Joe Elder will be hosting an ice cream social with his DELICIOUS Babcock Ice Cream. All products from Babcock are produced by our very own dairy plant on campus.

Please note: the gelatin in the ice cream is pork derived, however the sherbet flavors use a plant based stabilizer in place of the gelatin.

This event is open to all instructors and the Elementary Sanskrit, Pashto, Sinhala, Tibetan, and Tamil students.

The social will begin at 1:15PM in 336 Ingraham Hall

Lecture: “60 Years of Asking Questions” By Joe Elder

On Friday, June 27th, in 206 Ingraham Hall at 1:30PM in 206 Ingraham, Professor Joe Elder will lead a lecture/discussion on “60 Years of Asking Questions”. Elder, a professor of sociology, languages and cultures of Asia, and integrated liberal studies, has taught at the University of Wisconsin–Madison since 1961. His talk begins a decade before he came to Madison, when he and his wife, Joann, traveled by ship to India to teach English in high schools in Tamilnadu. That journey marked the start of a long relationship with India and South Asia – as a result, Elder took the lead in creating one of UW–Madison’s longest-running study abroad programs, which has sent well over a thousand students to India to do field research, learn Indian languages, and experience Indian culture.
