Objective/Goals:

At the end of the first semester, students would have mastered the Tamil syllabic writing system and would have learned the skills needed to exchange greetings, talk about their identity, name a number of familiar objects and be able to carry out day to day conversations in Tamil. They should be able to speak in past, present and future tenses and be proficient in using impersonal, finite and non-finite verb forms. Moreover, a good control of Tamil case markers and post positions will also be evident.

At the end of the second semester, they will display a good proficiency in their speaking and writing abilities. They will be able to handle a variety of communicative tasks such as describing daily activities, interests, personal and social needs such as food, travel and lodging with ease and confidence. In addition, they will also be capable of asking a variety of questions to obtain information to satisfy basic needs. They will be able to speak and write comfortably by linking sentences into a connected discourse of paragraph length. Their linguistic quality and quantity will be similar to the attributes described for Intermediate High Level speakers by ACTFL (American Council for Teaching of Foreign Languages).

Structure/Schedule:

A tentative timetable given below. A detailed weekly schedule will be submitted later.
Content:

Lesson: Students should read the materials before coming to class. Materials will be given at the beginning of the session. Students should note down their questions and new vocabulary and structures for class discussion.

Textual Grammar: Exercises will be given which will cover the new grammatical structures and syntax learned in the prepared reading class. Students are expected to finish the exercises in the class and generate more sentences based on the new structures. They are strongly encouraged to use the new structures with their classmates.

The teacher will also introduce new grammar and review old grammar in the class. Things like Tamil very conjugations, case markers, post positions, pronouns, tense and PNG suffixes, conditionals, reported speech, progressive and perfect tenses will be reviewed/taught and home work sheets will be given regularly.

Situational Conversation: Students will be given a handout containing a conversational piece and will get audio files for practice. Students are expected to thoroughly study the conversation, take note of the new vocabulary and structure and practice them before class. In the class, students will do the conversation by adopting role-plays. The teacher will correct pronunciation, intonation, pause and stress to fine-tune their spoken language.

Conversation: A topic for each class will be assigned before and students are asked to gather vocabulary relating to the assigned topic. They are also expected to make sentences and frame questions (in Tamil) relating to the topic, before coming to class. In the class, the students will ask questions and involve in conversation in Tamil.

Oral Presentation: This is an important class to develop the students’ spoken ability and to build up confidence in their speaking skills. Students will choose a topic and prepare for an oral presentation on that topic. They are encouraged to be creative when they prepare the presentation. They will have to give their presentation in the class which will be recorded for review in the next class.

Listening: Material for this class will be given beforehand. Vocabulary for each material will also be given. The students are expected to listen that at home. The topics to be covered in the class will often be popular Tamil film music, popular Tamil TV serials and radio plays. New vocabulary and structure encountered will be reviewed intensively and exercises will be given at the end of the class.

Film Viewing: Students will watch a chosen Tamil film before coming to class. Vocabulary list will be given before the class. Students should watch the film and come prepared for the class. A certain part of the film will be reviewed in the class and a few phrases, constructions and utterances will be highlighted for memorization. They are encouraged to watch certain part of the film again to see the ‘language in action’ and create a context where they will be able to use them again for practice. Tamil cultural elements that appear in the film will be explained.
Pronunciation Practice /Tutorial: Reading materials will be given to be practiced in the class to improve Tamil pronunciation. This class will also be utilized to tutor the students individually, clarify the doubts and to give issue-specific drills to improve their language. Students are strongly encouraged to come up with questions for this class and should feel free to get their doubts cleared.

Language Lab: Material will be given to the students a couple of days before the class. This class is primarily tailored to practice their speaking and improving their pronunciation.

Vocabulary: Vocabulary list on a certain topic will be given to the students before the vocabulary class. Students should learn the vocabulary and are required to make sentences of their own and frame questions using the words given in the list. Students will then be asked to gather synonyms and antonyms for each word given in the list.

Field visit and Functional Tamil component: This is a very vital component for developing functional aspect in language use. To develop competence and confidence in using the language in real-life situations, the students are asked to prepare appropriate conversational exchanges to function in the given situation. They are then asked to practice the exchanges in the class, do role-plays and are motivated to venture out using the conversational pieces. Probable topics for covering the functional aspect include: (1) Introducing oneself and describing what the student is doing here, (2) Ordering coffee/tea in a tea stall, (3) Learning to make a particular South Indian dish (4) Describing directions in Tamil and (8) Tamil lunch table with ordering food in Tamil. An off-shoot of this module can result in developing a skit in Tamil. Students are strongly encouraged to develop one.

Cooking classes: Cooking classes and potlucks can be arranged outside of classroom in an appropriate place to enable students to learn South Indian cooking.

Quiz / Test: There will be quizzes every week and there will be at least two tests – one at the end of the first session (13 July 2007) and one at the end of the second session (10 Aug 2007). There may be two smaller tests before the final tests each session. The quizzes will cover the items learned in that particular week and may also involve speaking and listening as well. The tests will have four components (Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing) and will cover the items finished in that particular session.

Thursday 08 August 2013 10:00-01:00 Second Semester Examination

Attendance Policy:

Daily attendance and active participation in class are necessary and expected. Learner’s active participation and creativity is very crucial for language development and will be accessed on a daily basis. The following criteria will be used to determine the grade. One mark will be taken off for each missed class.

10 Always well-prepared; is attentive and volunteers often; tries to use Tamil with classmates and instructor; makes most out of each activity; shows resourcefulness and imagination in using the language; responds to and engages classmates in a respectful manner; remains open-minded towards target culture; very highly motivated and never tired of using language; smiling and flexible

08 Usually well-prepared; is attentive and volunteers occasionally; tries to use Tamil with classmates and makes some effort to engage fellow students; completes exercise with some imagination and resourcefulness; shows some development of cultural sensitivity; motivated and not often tired of using language

06 Adequately prepared and attentive and often waits to be called upon; needs to be reminded to use Tamil outside and with classmates; responds and completes exercises with minimal imagination; does not engage in language use beyond the minimum requirements for an assignment

04 Not adequately prepared and completes assignments just for the sake of doing it; often needs to be reminded to use language outside; completes exercise with no imagination; shows low energy and laziness in using language
02 Usually unprepared; makes little effort to participate or complete exercises; rarely tries to use Tamil outside of class and with classmates; sluggish and shows no interest; complaints a lot

00 Makes no contribution to class whatsoever; is not on task; looks ‘blind’ in class; yawns, talks, appears irritated and hostile

Mobile phones and Laptop Policy:

Unless otherwise required using laptops in the class is not allowed. Similarly, using cellphones/smartphones or iPad kind of devices in the classroom is also not encouraged.

Requirements/Homework:

Assignment and Home work:
Assignment and homework are crucial components for learners overall language development. Assignments can require them to prepare for some oral presentation, translation exercise and a conversational piece to practice language. Drill to review grammar, pronunciation, vocabulary, structures will also become an integral part of homework. Students should submit the home work sincerely on the due dates. One mark a day will be deducted for late submissions and any assignment late by more than two days will not be graded.

Oral Presentation and Language Use:
This is a very vital component for developing functional aspect in language use. The students are expected to put sincere and original effort to develop presentations and should aim for native speaker-like pronunciation, intonation and stress. The presentations should be creative, natural, unhampered, smooth and substantial. Grading will be done largely based on the scheme mentioned in the previous section. Missed presentations can not be made up.

Grievance Procedures

If you are unhappy with your grades or there are other issues in the class room, try and work it out with the teacher in the first instance. If this is not possible then feel free to contact any program staff listed in your handbook.

Academic Integrity

Please keep in mind that language learning is a long-term process and necessarily involves making mistakes from time to time. Do not expect it to pop up suddenly in your mind, instead. Initially, you need to put more effort to familiarize yourself with the new (and often alien) structures, formations, vocabulary and sounds and will have to work hard to retain them in your mind. Since you are going to learn a language that is not related to your mother tongue, the differences will be more and so are difficulties. Your instructor is there to help you along the way, but ultimately the effort must come from you to make the experience worthwhile and fun. You are one in a few, or perhaps the only one, in your home school to have gotten this opportunity to learn this ancient language. Welcome to this new world. Please feel free to contact professor if you have any question or doubt. Good Luck!
