Elementary Sanskrit: An Intensive Course

Objective:
This course is designed to cover in eight weeks the amount of material usually treated in two semesters of a university-level elementary Sanskrit course. The first seven weeks will be spent working through the twenty-one chapters of Goldman’s Sanskrit primer, Devavāṇīpraveśīkā, along with a useful variety of handouts that will be provided by the instructor. Students will be also encouraged to use Arthur A. MacDonell’s A Sanskrit Grammar for Students as a reference book. The final week will be entirely focused on reading comprehension using passages from the Sanskrit epic Mahābhārata. The aim of the course is to provide students with a broad familiarity with Sanskrit grammar, basic compositional skills, and the ability to read epic Sanskrit with the aid of a dictionary, so that they will be prepared to enter a university-level intermediate Sanskrit course in the Fall.

Grading:
Since the summer term is divided into two four-week sessions, students will receive two reported letter grades - one for each session. They will be determined based on:

- Attendance and class participation: 40%
- Performance on daily quizzes and weekly tests: 40%
- Final examination: 20%

P.S. I hope that everybody is aware that this is an extremely fast-paced course. It is essential that you do not miss class - one day of this course is roughly equivalent to a week of regular classes and missing a single class usually means missing an entire unit of Sanskrit grammar. Therefore, each absence will influence your final grade (four unexcused absences within four-week session will reduce a grade by a single letter i.e. student with A would receive B, and so forth).

All classes begin at 8:30 with a daily quiz, which means that coming late will take your quiz time. Quizzes missed because of late-coming cannot be retaken.

Note:
The use of cell phones, text messaging, etc. is not permitted during class, and ringers must be silenced.
