Course description

The first year, Modern Tibetan Language class introduces the students to spoken modern Tibetan dialect used in the central part of Tibet as well in the Tibetan communities all over the world. Our aim is to develop basic Tibetan language skills, which include speaking, listening, reading and writing skills that enable the students to communicate with native speakers and read the target language books. The first semester meets Monday through Friday five days a week, four sessions a day and each session is 50 minutes.

We will use Manual Of Standard Tibetan Language And Civilization by Nicolas Tournadre and Sangda Dorje (Jun 28, 2005) as our principal Textbook for this class. Each chapter consists of dialog, vocabulary, grammatical explanation and Tibetan cultural explanations so that students could gain good knowledge of conversational, vocabulary and grammatical insight. Your instructor will provide extra supplemental materials for class activity related to the topics. Students will engage in various activities in the classroom such as group work, pair work, and individual activities.

In the first year elementary level, we aim to cover two chapters a week and we will thoroughly study the whole content and use as much of class time on conversation and between student and student- student to teacher to facilitate Language learning process. Students will hear and use only target language in the class. Should there be concerns that need to be explained in English about grammar or structures, students are welcomed to discuss them with the instructor before/after class or during the office hour.

In addition to the chapters from the Textbook, we will read short story books on a daily basis to help students to accelerate their reading skill, pronunciation and writing short stories in Tibetan Language.

Placement of students in the appropriate levels:

Based on teacher's assessment, teacher may move a student to a level of instruction more commensurate with the student's abilities.

Course objectives:

The course is intended to accomplish the goal of reading and understanding basic expressions and simple texts and short stories in Tibetan Language. And also engage in simple communications in order to provide and obtain information about daily activities. Write simple sentences and with control of basic Tibetan grammatical structures.

Learning outcomes:

By the end of the semester, students will be able to use the target language for daily needs such as,

- Greetings of different time of the day.
- Talk about family and their professions.
- How to ask and answer simple questions of daily activities
- Grocery shopping, and menu ordering at restaurant.
- How, Where, and when to use formal and informal languages,
- Read and tell about season and weather forecast
- Describing people and places.
- Use basic grammatical features in writing short stories and frequent

How the Credit hours are met:

During this eight-week intensive program, this class meets five days a week and four sessions everyday. Each session is 50 minutes long. There are daily assignments and oral quizzes, weekly written quizzes and bi-weekly class presentations in addition to the midterm oral and written exam and final oral and written exam.

Supplementary materials:

Your instructor will distribute short stories, songs, Tibetan sayings, and simple poems through out the semester. Short assignments will be given on the supplementary materials as needed.

Course Requirement:

Students are required to read the grammatical explanations in the lesson before coming to the class. Class hours will be dedicated mainly for group conversational activities. Grammar explanations and clarification will be done after class if need be.

Attendance and Participation:

It is the policy of SASLI that students attend class every day during the summer, due to the intensive structure. Students with extenuating circumstances must discuss the situation with the instructor and SASLI administration. Absences, other than illness, will be worked out on a case-by-case basis. Vacation is not a valid excuse for a student to have an absence. If a student misses class, it is their responsibility to make up the work and to keep up with the other students in the class. SASLI has a written absence, tardiness, and religious observance policy as below.

Tardiness and Absence:

Classes start on time at 8:30AM and go until 1:00PM (with a half hour break)

Tardiness:

- 1st time = warning
- 2nd time = 2nd warning
- 3rd time = grade deduction
- 4th time = sent to admin office/possible additional grade deduction

Absence:

1st unexcused absence = warning + grade deduction

2nd unexcused absence = sent to admin office + grade deduction

Excused and unexcused absences cannot equal more than 2 per semester. Once a student has a 3rd absence, must see the admin office

Note: An unexcused absence is any absence with no prior approval from the instructor. Unanticipated medical/other emergencies may require additional documentation and approval from admin office in order to be considered "excused."

Homework and Assignment:

Assignments for this course will include quizzes, speaking and listening exercises, reading and writing assignments at home.

All students are expected to study the vocabulary and the conversation section from the chapter prior to coming the class. Students are required to turn in 10 written sentences everyday mainly focusing on the sentence structures, verbs, adjectives and main vocabularies from the current chapter.

Checked assignments will be returned on the next day and each assignment will be graded on a system of points. The total score will be converted to a letter grade after the final exam. All assignments should be turned in on time. Assignment turned in after 24 hours will not be graded.

Oral quizzes:

Vocabulary quizzes: There will be 3-5 minutes pop-up vocabulary quizzes every morning to help students to build their vocabulary.

Written quizzes:

There will be written quizzes every Friday during the last session of the day. The quiz will be on the chapter that is covered during the week. The written quizzes consist of fill in the blanks, question and answer and construction of sentences focusing on the grammar rules.

Bi-Weekly presentation / projects:

Students will be assigned to do presentations in class every other Monday during the last session on the topics covered during the past two weeks. Length of presentation is 7 to 10 minutes for each student. There will be discussion and Q&A session right after each presentation.

Class Etiquette:

1. Inform your instructor if you are going to miss the class and reasons for missing the class.
2. Be on time to your class and participate in discussions and other class activities.
3. Be respectful of other students and no eating during the instruction.
4. Do not record the class video /audio devices.
5. Do not text with your cell-phone or digital devices during the class time.
6. CELL PHONES AND LAPTOPS: Laptops and cell phones are not allowed to use during class.

CONSISTENT INDEPENDENT WORK:

Students should expect to spend at least 3-4 hour studying and preparing outside of class every day.

Classroom atmosphere:

SASLI is committed to creating a diverse and welcoming learning environment for all students, and has a non-discrimination policy that reflects this philosophy. Disrespectful behaviors or comments addressed towards any group or individual, regardless of race/ethnicity, sexuality, gender, religion, ability, or any other identity or community are deemed unacceptable in class, and will be addressed by the instructor or referred to the Academic Director.

Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. We will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun.
