There are four pieces to the SASLI general application. They are as follows:

Step 1: Fill out the online application form.

Step 2: Pay the non-refundable application fee immediately after submitting the form.

Step 3: Send an unofficial copy of your single most recent transcript to SASLI at sasli@southasia.wisc.edu (for current students and those enrolled in the last five years).

Step 4: Write a short statement as to why you would like to attend SASLI (one page maximum).

PROGRAM DETAILS

SCHEDULE & COURSEWORK

All SASLI classes take place during the eight-week summer session, running from June through August. Classroom instruction will be scheduled for four hours per day, Monday through Friday. Students registering for SASLI are required to select one South Asian language for study.

CREDITS

The schedule will enable students to complete two semester courses, equivalent to one academic year of study. Students will receive a total of 8 credits from the University of Wisconsin - Madison for the SASLI summer session.

COSTS

SASLI TUITION & FEES

The SASLI program tuition is set at $5,000. This fee does not include the cost of textbooks, living expenses, or records fees.

HOUSING & LIVING COSTS

When hosted in-person at UW-Madison, SASLI students are responsible for making their own living arrangements for the duration of the summer session and for all living costs incurred during their stay. In general, students are encouraged to budget $500-800 per month to cover their living expenses.

FUNDING

SASLI offers a variety of funding opportunities that cover partial to full tuition. These include:

- WISLI Tuition Scholarship
- Half/Full Fee Remission
- $1000 Fee Remission
- FLAS Fellowship
- Boren Scholarships
- ProjectGO
