

University of Wisconsin-Madison

Advanced Hindi, ASIANLANG 517 LEC-004(45564) & ASIANLANG 527 LEC-004 (45565)

Credits

By the end of the SASLI program, you will complete two, four-credit language courses.

Course Designations and Attributes

General Education

Course Description

Hindi is one of the most widely spoken languages with more than 600 million speakers (L1 & L2) in the world. It is written in the Devanagari script and has the status of an official language of India alongside English. It has a rich literary tradition and is also the main language of the Bollywood film industry which has greatly contributed to popularizing Hindi around the world. In this course, students will be trained not only in the contextual details and collocations of formal vocabulary of Hindi, but also in the most productive morphological processes for creating/expanding vocabulary items.

Requisites

Students should have completed two semesters of Intermediate Hindi.

You will need to take OPI after the completion of the second semester—ASIANLANG-527.

Meeting Time and Location

8:30-1:00 pm CST, M-F

In-Person

ASIANLANG 517 & ASIANLANG 527

Instructional Modality

This course will meet in-person.

The Credit Hours Requirements

By the end of the SASLI program, you will complete two, four-credit language courses.

According to the federal Carnegie definition of a credit hour, one credit is the learning that takes place in at least 45 hours of learning activities, which include time in lectures or class meetings, in person or online, exams, presentations, tutorials, reading, writing, studying, preparation for any of these activities, and any other learning activities.

Requirements Met by the Course

ASIANLANG 517 (4.0 credits), ASIANLANG 527 (4.0 credits)

The credit hours for this course are met by the equivalent of academic year credits of “One hour (i.e. 50 minutes) of classroom or direct faculty/instructor and a minimum of two hours of out of class student work each over approximately 15 weeks or an equivalent amount of engagement over a different number of weeks.” Students will meet with the instructor for a total of 156 hours of class (4 hours of synchronous class), and around 4 hours of asynchronous work per day, 5 days a week over the 8-week period.

Regular and Substantive Student-Instructor Interaction

The classes will be interactive and require you to work independently, with your group members to be able to develop your communicative and cultural competence, and hone your performance. The Advanced Hindi language course aims to develop your language proficiency at an Advanced-Mid level according to ACTFL standards (see www.actfl.org). The order of emphasis given on the course is interpersonal communication, presentational speaking and writing, interpretive listening and reading. Please read the detailed Course Overview:

- In order to achieve the goals mentioned above, the communicative approach will be highly emphasized throughout the entire course. Communicative tasks will be blended with grammar instructions, vocabulary lessons and cultural explanations. Audios/videos/movie clips and movies, etc., will be assigned to listen/watch and complete interactive exercises throughout the course, and will be asked to answer relevant questions based on the materials. In the following class, questions will be asked based on your daily/weekly home assignments such as a story, a movie clip, conversations or an online material.
- The target language will be used in the class. Students will be expected to take an active role in the class activities. They will be encouraged to work in groups (when applicable) to engage in different types of classroom activities with the aid of a vocabulary list and grammar instructions. The instructor will give topics for in class presentations or students may also come up with their own topics.
- Students will be regularly updated on their progress and areas of weakness through the homework corrections, weekly quizzes and exams. Those who need extra assistance are strongly encouraged to attend daily office hours. It is mandatory to attend at least one office hour a week to discuss your progress, specific difficulty areas, and extra help.
- Students are encouraged to actively participate in the classroom by volunteering to lead the assigned activities and comment on their peers’ presentation/description. They will get enough opportunities to hone their language skills and help/correct one another in the interpersonal and interactive group works.
- In addition to the daily four-hour in-person class meetings, students are required to spend four hours asynchronously to complete listening/recording/reading/writing activities/works including some grammar description and usage to help them actively participate in in-class practice sessions.
- Please check your Canvas sites regularly for weekly schedules, assignments due dates, and all the updates.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & OUTCOMES:

The Advanced Hindi language course aims to develop students' language proficiency at an Advanced Mid (minimally) to Advanced-High (ideally) level according to ACTFL standards (see www.actfl.org). The order of emphasis given on the course is interpersonal communication, presentational speaking, interpretive reading, interpretive listening and presentational writing. At the end of the course, a student will be able to:

- Participate in conversations about topics that go beyond everyday life in an organized way with some details about events and experiences in various time frames, such as talking about current events discuss global issues, such as health, education and study programs, conduct or participate in interviews etc.
- Deliver organized presentations appropriate to an audience on a variety of topics, such as higher education or health issues in India, importance of certain social and cultural practices, present reasons for or against a position on political or social issues, provide explanation about a process or procedure, such as applying for college admission, scholarships, financial aids etc.
- Understand the main idea and some supporting details on a variety of topics of personal and general interests in newspapers, blogs, job descriptions, short stories, poems etc.
- Understand the main idea and supporting details of televised promotions, documentary, movies, talk shows, drama serials and short interviews on topics of interests.
- Write on topics such as education, health, and community in an organized way in connected paragraphs at discourse level in various timeframes, such as a brief summary of the plot of a movie or an episode of a TV show.

Grading

Grading scale

A= 90-100%	AB=87-89%	B=80-86%	BC=77-79%
C=70-76%	D=60-69%	F=0-59%

Your final grades will be calculated on the following categories:

Attendance 10%	Class Participation 10%	Homework Assignments 20% (including online and other speaking, listening, reading and journal writing)
Daily Class Presentations 20% (Individual)	Class Project 20%	Final Exam: A paper or a Video submission 20%

All assignments must be done in the required format (as announced on class course site), and must be submitted on time. Unexcused late assignments will receive lowered points or grades. Students who anticipate an absence on the day an assignment is due, or a conflict between the schedule for this course and other schedules, should discuss the situation with me in advance, and arrange for alternative submission date. Late, incomplete, and missed assignments will adversely affect your final grade.

Class Attendance is required and key to succeeding in the course. See the attendance policy below for further details.

Class Participation: You are required to actively participate in all activities, including pair and group work in class and outside as deemed necessary.

Homework Assignment: You will be assigned homework in each class and are expected to submit it on time on the agreed date. Your work is factored into planning for future classes; therefore, timely completion of all assigned homework will allow instructors to more accurately gauge student progress and effectively utilize class time.

The schedule for assignments will be available on the Canvas course site. Each assignment will be graded on a system of points; the total score will be converted to a letter grade. You will get feedback on your assignments in the form of comments on the Canvas course site and you will have the opportunity to discuss that during office hours. Please note homework assignments count toward 20% of your grade.

Class Project: You need to complete two projects, first in the fourth week of the program, and the second in the last week. The details will be provided by the end of the first week of classes).

Final Exam: The final exam paper or the video submission will be due on the last day of the semester (end of the fourth and eighth week).

Note: Final grades will not be curved.

Course Website, Learning Management System & Digital Instructional Tools

We will use the Canvas course site for LMS, and Zoom if and when needed for virtual class meetings and office hours.

Homework, Exams, Quizzes, Papers & Other Major Graded Work

The course has no quizzes. Instead, daily class presentations on assigned topics will be graded as per the posted rubric. It is recommended you continue to review the course materials and join the office hours at least once a week to discuss your progress and get instructors' suggestions to improve your performance in the course. The final exam will consist of a 1000 word written essay or a 10-12 minute long video submission. Project details with submission mode will be available on the Canvas course site. If you need any accommodation, please let the instructor know as soon as possible.

The written assignment should be neatly written in double space and submitted to the instructor in class. The reading assignments should be either directly recorded using Canvas media recording or any recording software and uploaded as a media file on the course site. A detailed and specific guidelines and expectations for all the assignments will be provided on the Canvas. Late assignments will not be graded for points.

Weekly Schedule: A weekly schedule will be posted by Friday 5 pm every week.

Important dates:

Holiday: Monday, July 4, no class (Independence day holiday)

First Semester Final Project: July 13 Wednesday

First Semester Final Exam (paper or video): July 15 Friday

Week 8 Practice Exams: August 10 Wednesday

Second Semester Final Project: August 11 Thursday

Second Semester Final Exam (Paper or video): August 12 Friday

[Note: All SASLI programs are organized on week 7 of the program on August 2 at 1:30 pm (CST) to showcase what students can do in the target language. Participation in the All-SASLI program is mandatory for all students. The program showcases the performances or talents of students in the target language as an individual (if you are the only student in the class) or as a group. The performance can be an interview, a tv show, a song, a skit, or a recitation of a poem etc.]

COURSE POLICIES

CLASS ETIQUETTES:

- Be on time (class starts at 11:00 am)
- Complete and turn in your homework on time.
- Actively participate in discussions and other class activities.
- Be respectful of other students and avoid distracting them and hindering their opportunity to learn.
- Show your group members the same courtesy that you would give to the professor. Inform them of group meetings or activities that you will have to leave early or miss.
- Do not record the class meetings on video /audio devices.
- Do not engage in any activities using your cell phone or digital devices during the class time

Per FERPA regulations, you are not permitted to make audio or video recordings during synchronous class times.

Attendance

This class will follow WISLI attendance policy, which states:

Given the intensive nature of our programs, students in the Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes (WISLI) are expected to attend every day of class during the 8-week summer term. Students are allowed to miss one day in the first half of the summer program and one day in the second half of the summer program without a grade deduction. Unexcused absences of 2 or more will result in a grade deduction including attendance and participation, missing work or tests, which may impact a student's final grade. Please see the grade rubric in your course syllabus for an explanation of your course grade.

Excused absences for emergency circumstances will be reviewed on an individual basis. Please contact your instructor as soon as possible if you will be absent from class.

For COVID-19 related questions, please see the UW-Madison COVID-19 Response FAQs: <https://covidresponse.wisc.edu/faq/>

All WISLI programs following UW-Madison policies for religious observances. Please notify your instructor in the first week of class if you will be absent due to religious observances in the 8-week summer term.

WISLI attendance policies align with UW-Madison guidelines: <https://doso.students.wisc.edu/guide/class-attendance/>

Unexpected Absences and COVID-19

Given the intensive nature of our programs, instructors and students in the Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes (WISLI) are expected to be present every day of class during the 8-week summer term. However, sometimes unexpected situations arise, and it is important to work together with the pedagogy and administrative program staff in a timely manner to find appropriate and reasonable accommodations for instructors and students while maintaining the rigor and flow of our intensive courses.

The Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes (WISLI) follow UW-Madison guidelines regarding COVID-19. For the most up-to-date information about these policies, go to: <https://covidresponse.wisc.edu>. Please review the information on the FAQs page (<https://covidresponse.wisc.edu/faq/>), which provides guidance regarding some COVID-19 related absence issues, including questions such as:

- If I am in class or at work when I receive a positive COVID-19 test result, should I leave immediately?
- What should I do if I've tested positive for COVID-19?
- What should I do if a student in my class tells me that they have tested positive for COVID-19? Should I inform the other students? Should I cancel class?
- What should I do if multiple students in my class are out because they are isolating or in quarantine for COVID-19?
- Will I be notified if a student in my class is required to be tested for COVID-19, has failed to test for COVID-19, or tests positive for COVID-19?
- Are instructors required to provide students fully remote or online access to in-person courses?
- How long should someone stay home if they are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19?
- I've been exposed to (a close contact of) someone with COVID-19. Do I need to quarantine and for how long?
- Should I attend work or class if I am sick?
- I heard someone in one of my classes has tested positive but I don't know whether I was a close contact. What should I do?

Per SASLI policy, students are expected to attend class every day during the semester given the intensive structure of the program:

- One absence per semester is permissible.
- Two absences in a semester will result in a grade deduction for that semester.
- Three or more absences in a semester will result in automatic failure of the course.

Additional Notes:

- Absences on days of exams, projects, presentations etc. will lead to failure of that coursework except in case of documented emergencies. There will be no make-ups of quizzes, projects, presentations, etc. due to absence.
- Failure of the first/third/fifth semester course prohibits students moving to the second/fourth/sixth semester course and will result in dismissal from the program without refund.
- Contact hours for federal grants require that the SASLI program must end on the last day of class. Requests to leave or take final exams early will not be granted.
- Pre-program requests for absences will not be granted.

- If you have a chronic illness that might require you to miss classes during the semester, please inform the instructor as well as schedule an appointment with the SASLI Academic Director, Sarah Beckham at the beginning of the semester.
- If you are absent due to an illness, you are required to meet with the SASLI Academic Director, Sarah Beckham. You will also be required to submit necessary documentation.

Any emergency circumstances for absences can be addressed to the SASLI Academic Director, Sarah Beckham.

Tardiness:

Joining class on time is important for successful participation in the SASLI program. Being late to class is disruptive and disrespectful to one's instructor(s) and classmates, and could result in a marked absence or grade deduction.

Absences due to Religious Observances:

SASLI follows the UW-Madison policy for religious observances. If you need to be absent from class due to religious observances, you must notify the instructor as soon as possible and no later than the first week of class of the specific days or dates on which you request relief. The instructor will make reasonable accommodations to schedule make-ups before or after the regularly scheduled requirements.

Teaching & Learning Data Transparency Statement

The privacy and security of faculty, staff and students' personal information is a top priority for UW-Madison. The university carefully evaluates and vets all campus-supported digital tools used to support teaching and learning, to help support success through learning analytics, and to enable proctoring capabilities. Privacy of Student Records & the Use of Audio Recorded Lectures Statement

View more information about FERPA. Lecture materials and recordings for this course are protected intellectual property at UW-Madison. Students in this course may use the materials and recordings for their personal use related to participation in this class. Students may also take notes solely for their personal use. If a lecture is not already recorded, you are not authorized to record my lectures without my permission unless you are considered by the university to be a qualified student with a disability who has an approved accommodation that includes recording. [Regent Policy Document 4-1] Students may not copy or have lecture materials and recordings outside of class, including posting on internet sites or selling to commercial entities, with the exception of sharing copies of your personal notes as a notetaker through the McBurney Disability Resource Center. Students are otherwise prohibited from providing or selling their personal notes to anyone else or being paid for taking notes by any person or commercial firm without the instructor's express written permission. Unauthorized use of these copyrighted lecture materials and recordings constitutes copyright infringement and may be addressed under the university's policies, UWS Chapters 14 and 17, governing student academic and non-academic misconduct.

How to Succeed in This Course

You need to attend all the classes regularly and on time, join online office hours to get help, complete all the work by the due dates following the specific guidelines, actively participate in all the class activities, review course materials regularly and acquire vocabulary of formal register of Hindi by online reading of authentic texts, especially online newspapers. You need to spend around 4 hours of time everyday to complete the assignments and practice the language. Use online resources to improve the script and come prepared for each and every class.

Important: Never hesitate to seek help from your instructional team at the first sign of difficulty in understanding or mastering any part of the content, or for matters related to script, pronunciation, and speaking skills. For improving your listening skills, we strongly encourage you to watch some interesting Indian movies/serials and interact with native speakers in Hindi whenever possible.

Students may find the following campus resources helpful in aiding their success in the SASLI program:

University Health Services (UHS) is the UW-Madison student health center with a mission “to enhance learning and student success by promoting, protecting, and restoring the health and well-being”. Please visit their website: <https://www.uhs.wisc.edu/> to learn more about the services they offer and how you may access them.

Course Evaluations

Students will be provided with an opportunity to evaluate this course and your learning experience. Student participation is an integral component of this course, and your confidential feedback is important to me. I strongly encourage you to participate in the mid-term and final course evaluations. Typed course evaluations will not be released to instructors until after grades have been posted.

Students' Rules, Rights & Responsibilities

Diversity & Inclusion Statement

Diversity is a source of strength, creativity, and innovation for UW-Madison. We value the contributions of each person and respect the profound ways their identity, culture, background, experience, status, abilities, and opinion enrich the university community. We commit ourselves to the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research, outreach, and diversity as inextricably linked goals. The University of Wisconsin-Madison fulfills its public mission by creating a welcoming and inclusive community for people from every background – people who as students, faculty, and staff serve Wisconsin and the world.

UW-Madison is committed to creating a diverse and welcoming learning environment for all students and has a non-discrimination policy that reflects this philosophy. Disrespectful behaviors or comments addressed towards any group or individual, regardless of race/ethnicity, sexuality, gender, religion, ability, or any other identity or community are deemed unacceptable in class/or on Canvas.

Class rosters are provided to the instructors with the student's legal name. We will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name and your selected pronouns.

Academic Integrity Statement

By virtue of enrollment, each student agrees to uphold the high academic standards of the University of Wisconsin-Madison; academic misconduct is behavior that negatively impacts the integrity of the institution. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and helping others commit these previously listed acts are examples of misconduct which may result in disciplinary action. Examples of disciplinary action include, but is not limited to, failure on the assignment/course, written reprimand, disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities Statement

The University of Wisconsin-Madison supports the right of all enrolled students to a full and equal educational opportunity. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Wisconsin State Statute (36.12), and UW-Madison policy (UW-855) require the university to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities to access and participate in its academic programs and educational services. Faculty and students share responsibility in the accommodation process. Students are expected to inform faculty [me] of their need for instructional accommodations during the beginning of the semester, or as soon as possible after being approved for accommodations. Faculty [I], will work either directly with the student [you] or in coordination with the McBurney Center to provide reasonable instructional and course-related accommodations. Disability information, including instructional accommodations as part of a student's educational record, is confidential and protected under FERPA. (See: McBurney Disability Resource Center)
