Develop proficiency in a South Asian language and earn 8 UW-Madison credits and two transcript letter grades during the intensive, 8-week program (Monday-Friday, 8:30 am - 1 pm).

Participate in a variety of extracurricular social, cultural, and professional development events to meet friends and take your learning beyond the classroom.

Support your language study through a number of possible funding opportunities to work toward your multilingual goals.

Application Deadline: March 15, 2023

SASLI is sponsored by a consortium of National Resource Centers on South Asia and FLAS-granting institutions, with funding from the U.S. Department of Education’s Title VI Program.
