Course Description

This course covers equivalent to one year (two Semesters/three Quarters) of language instruction. Urdu is one of the major languages of the South Asian subcontinent. It is the official language of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and is one of the officially recognized national languages of India. Beyond South Asia, millions of people speak varieties of Urdu in communities worldwide.

Urdu is among the most important literary and cultural languages of Asia, with a rich literary tradition that has been written in both the modern standard language and in earlier dialects. The renowned poets Quli Qutub Shah (1581-1611), Vali Muhammad Vali (1667-c.1725), Mir Taqi Mir (c.1723-1810), Assadullah Khan "Ghalib" (1797-1869) wrote in literary varieties of Urdu. Important Urdu literary figures in more recent times include Muhammad Iqbal (c.1877-1938), the national poet of Pakistan, and Faiz Ahmad Faiz (1911-1984).

In its official style, Urdu is written in a modified form of Perso-Arabic script. Hindi is a sister language to Urdu, written in the Devanagari script and drawing upon the rich cultural and linguistic resources of Sanskrit and Prakrit.

- Once everyone is familiar with it then we will also learn to type in Urdu
- For Windows Urdu Font download, download phonetic keyboard as well
- For Mac Look for ‘Noto Nastaliq’ in fonts scroll down start typing after selecting ‘Urdu’ typing option added.
Homework & Other Assignments

Each written homework assignment will be graded on a ten-point scale. Missing or unexcused late homework will earn a grade of zero. All homework assignments are to be turned in at the beginning of class on the day due.

Classes will begin promptly on time; students are expected to be in class on time. Students should take note of the dates of dictations, quizzes and examinations (including the final examination). Requests for the rescheduling of examinations are not granted. NOTE CAREFULLY THE DATE OF THE FINAL EXAMINATION. IT IS NOT PERMITTED TO TAKE THE EXAMINATION EARLY. Make your travel plans for the holidays accordingly.

Attendance and Student Responsibility

Students enrolled are expected to attend all class sessions and are held responsible for material covered in those sessions. If for any reason you are unable to attend a class session, it is your responsibility to find out from another student what was covered in that session and whether any assignments or instructions were given out while you were absent. Attendance will be taken in each class.

Class Preparation & Participation

This is an intensive course and thus requires you to be fully prepared for all classes. You are expected to be fully prepared and participate in all class activities. Besides your homework assignments you will be given preparation work for home and it can consist of reading, going over materials, finding information, exercises etc. You may lose points in case you are not prepared fully or do not participate in the class. Other reasons for losing points are tardiness, inattentiveness and using devices which are not related to class.

Exams, Quizzes, Papers & Other Major Graded Work

There will almost daily written homework, four weekly tests (2 in each semester) that will take place in class and primarily be written exams and can include grammatical constructions, oral dictation, vocabulary, completion exercises, and translation. The tests will be on every Friday except the fourth and eighth week (Final exam and Project Presentation). Dictation-type quizzes will be a regular feature of the class. These are short tests in which the instructor will speak a series of words or phrases in Urdu and you will write them down in Urdu along with their meanings in English.

Students will work on two comprehensive projects during the semester. These can be assigned individually or in pairs. The first project will be submitted (in writing) and presented (orally) in class in the fourth week and the second project is due in the eighth week of the program. The details will be provided in class.

Your two lowest homework and one lowest dictation (each semester) grades will be forgiven.

Course Policies

Attendance: Given the intensive nature of our programs, instructors and students in the Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes (WISLI) are expected to be present every day of class during the 8-week summer term:

- One absence per semester is permissible, resulting in no grade deduction.
- Two absences in a semester will result in a grade deduction for that semester.
- Three or more absences in a semester will result in automatic failure of the course.

Please see the grade rubric in your course syllabus for an explanation of your course grade.

Sometimes unexpected situations arise, and it is important to work together with the instructor and administrative program staff in a timely manner to find appropriate and reasonable accommodations while maintaining the rigor and schedule of our intensive courses. Excused absences for emergency circumstances will be reviewed on an individual basis. Please contact your instructor as soon as possible if you will be absent from class. All WISLI programs following UW-Madison policies for religious observances. Please notify your instructor in the first week of class if you will be absent due to religious observance in the 8-week summer term.

Additional Notes:

- Absences on days of exams, projects, presentations etc. will lead to failure of that coursework except in case of documented emergencies. There will be no make-ups of quizzes, projects, presentations, etc. due to absence. Make-up assignments granted by the instructor and administrative team in case of illness/emergency may not exceed 2 days without administrative approval.

- Failure of the first/third/fifth semester course prohibits students moving to the second/fourth/sixth semester course and will result in dismissal from the program without refund.

- Contact hours for federal grants require that the SASLI program must end on the last day of class. Requests to leave or take final exams early will not be granted.

- Pre-program requests for absences must align with the course schedule and deadlines and must not place an undue burden on instructors to provide alternative make-up assignments.

- If you have a chronic illness that might require you to miss classes during the semester, please inform the instructor as well as schedule an appointment with the SASLI Academic Director, Sarah Beckham (sbeckham@wisc.edu) at the beginning of the semester.

- If you are absent due to an illness or emergency, you are also required to contact the SASLI Academic Director, Sarah Beckham (sbeckham@wisc.edu). You may also be required to submit necessary documentation.

WISLI Technology Policy
There are many helpful online tools available to language learners and it is expected that these tools are used responsibly and in alignment with UW-Madison expectations of academic integrity. Do not use translation software such as Google Translate or AI tools such as Chat GPT unless your instructor directs you to use these tools for assignments or projects. And in these instances, these types of tools are only to be used in the manner permitted by the instructor. Ask your instructor for clarification if you have any questions about what is allowed.

Additional information on UW-Madison policy regarding use of generative artificial intelligence is available here: https://conduct.students.wisc.edu/artificial-intelligence/.

Teaching & Learning Data Transparency Statement
The privacy and security of faculty, staff and students’ personal information is a top priority for UW-Madison. The university carefully evaluates and vets all campus-supported digital tools used to support teaching and learning, to help support success through learning analytics, and to enable proctoring capabilities. View the university’s full teaching and learning data transparency statement.

Privacy of Student Records & the Use of Audio Recorded Lectures Statement
View more information about FERPA. Lecture materials and recordings for this course are protected intellectual property at UW-Madison. Students in this course may use the materials and recordings for their personal use related to participation in this class. Students may also take notes solely for their personal use. If a lecture is not already recorded, you are not authorized to record my lectures without my permission unless you are considered by the university to be a qualified student with a disability who has an approved accommodation that includes recording. [Regent Policy Document 4-1] Students may not copy or have lecture materials and recordings outside of class, including posting on internet sites or selling to commercial entities, with the exception of sharing copies of your personal notes as a notetaker through the McBurney Disability Resource Center. Students are otherwise prohibited from providing or selling their personal notes to anyone else or being paid for taking notes by any person or commercial firm without the instructor’s express written permission. Unauthorized use of these copyrighted lecture materials and recordings constitutes copyright infringement and may be addressed under the university’s policies, UWS Chapters 14 and 17, governing student academic and non-academic misconduct.

How to Succeed in This Course

- Make learning Urdu a priority.
- Be regular, do not miss any class.
- SASLI intensive course is as much work outside class as much it is in class.
- Make it a habit to finish your assignments the same day and don’t delay them.
- Studying with your class fellows, like Urdu halqa (Circle).
- Don’t hesitate in asking questions or clarifications in class or visiting office hours.
- Practice, practice and practice. Language learning is repetition and repetition of learned materials. Use it or lose it. So keep going back what you have learned and make habit of using/showing off those skills among family and friends.
- Re-Submit/re-present/re-tell corrected HWs, tests, other assignments and presentation if you do it regularly and daily, you can earn extra credits.
- Challenge yourself, get out of your ‘perfectionist zone’. If you make mistakes while aiming for higher level, you won’t be penalized. If for the fear of mistakes, you try lower level it may earn lower grades.

Students may find the following campus resources helpful in aiding their success in the SASLI program:

University Health Services (UHS) is the UW-Madison student health center with a mission “to enhance learning and student success by promoting, protecting, and restoring the health and well-being”. Please visit their website: https://www.uhs.wisc.edu/ to learn more about the services they offer and how you may access them.

- Helpline for 24-Hour Mental Health Crisis Services: 608-265-5600 (option 9)
- After-hours Nurse Line: 608-265-5600 (option 1)

UHS also has a site dedicated to remote services (https://www.uhs.wisc.edu/remotehealth/). Note that some services offered at UHS are limited to in-state students only.

LGBTQ+ Support: The Gender & Sexuality Campus Center (https://lgbt.wisc.edu/) is a fantastic resource for LGBTQ+ students on campus. If you need to locate a gender-inclusive restroom on UW campus, visit: https://lgbt.wisc.edu/support/navigate-campus/.

The Office of Student Assistance and Support (OSAS): OSAS is a primary resource for students navigating personal, academic, or health issues to get the help they need, whether that be on campus or in the community. The office also serves as a central location for reporting bias concerns and general complaints. OSAS is located in Bascom Hall and can be contacted at 608-263-5700. Their website is: https://osas.wisc.edu.

Some additional campus resources are:

- Undergraduate Academic Advising and Career Services
- Office of the Registrar
- Office of Student Financial Aid

Course Evaluations

Students will be provided with an opportunity to evaluate this course and your learning experience. Student participation is an integral component of this course, and your confidential feedback is important to me. I strongly encourage you to participate in the mid-term and final course evaluations. Typed course evaluations will not be released to instructors until after grades have been posted.
Students’ Rules, Rights & Responsibilities

Diversity & Inclusion Statement
Diversity is a source of strength, creativity, and innovation for UW-Madison. We value the contributions of each person and respect the profound ways their identity, culture, background, experience, status, abilities, and opinion enrich the university community. We commit ourselves to the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research, outreach, and diversity as inextricably linked goals. The University of Wisconsin-Madison fulfills its public mission by creating a welcoming and inclusive community for people from every background – people who as students, faculty, and staff serve Wisconsin and the world.

UW-Madison is committed to creating a diverse and welcoming learning environment for all students and has a non-discrimination policy that reflects this philosophy. Disrespectful behaviors or comments addressed towards any group or individual, regardless of race/ethnicity, sexuality, gender, religion, ability, or any other identity or community are deemed unacceptable in class/or on Canvas.

Class rosters are provided to the instructors with the student’s legal name. We will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name and your selected pronouns.

Academic Integrity Statement
By virtue of enrollment, each student agrees to uphold the high academic standards of the University of Wisconsin-Madison; academic misconduct is behavior that negatively impacts the integrity of the institution. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and helping others commit these previously listed acts are examples of misconduct which may result in disciplinary action. Examples of disciplinary action include, but is not limited to, failure on the assignment/course, written reprimand, disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Common examples of academic misconduct include:

- cheating on an examination
- collaborating with others in work to be presented contrary to the stated rules of the course
- submitting a paper or assignment as one’s own work when a part or all of the paper or assignment is the work of another
- submitting a paper or assignment that contains ideas or research of others without appropriately identifying the sources of those ideas
- stealing examinations or course materials
- submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course
- using online language translation tools contrary to the rules of the course
- knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed

For detailed information, please see conduct.students.wisc.edu/academic-misconduct/

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities Statement
The University of Wisconsin-Madison supports the right of all enrolled students to a full and equal educational opportunity. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Wisconsin State Statute (36.12), and UW-Madison policy (UW-855) require the university to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities to access and participate in its academic programs and educational services. Faculty and students share responsibility in the accommodation process. Students are expected to inform faculty [me] of their need for instructional accommodations during the beginning of the semester, or as soon as possible after being approved for accommodations. Faculty [I], will work either directly with the student [you] or in coordination with the McBurney Center to provide reasonable instructional and course-related accommodations. Disability information, including instructional accommodations as part of a student's educational record, is confidential and protected under FERPA. (See: McBurney Disability Resource Center)
